

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, JANUARY 5, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Blotters, calendars, bills;
These things I did not seek
I have enough of paper stuff
To run my stove a week.

The city schools re-open today.

Mrs. A. J. McDougle is quite ill at her home in the West End.

Col. James Stewart, one of Maysville's pioneer cigarmakers, who has turned out his millions of the fragrant weed, has gone to Cincinnati to work at his trade. James is a Maysville boy and was born and reared here, hence he will be greatly missed in working circles.

THE ERNEST GAMBLE RECITAL

Saturday night a large audience was highly delighted with the musicale and recital of the "Ernest Gamble Concert Party," at the High School auditorium.

Many declared it the most pleasing entertainment of the entire High School Lyceum course. Mr. Ernest Gamble, basso cantante, Miss Verna Page, violiniste and Miss Irene Kuhn, pianiste, were the entire star entertainers and the program and libretto made up a recital that was brimful of artistic effort of the most brilliant and highclass scope. These three are artists par excellence.

AUTO PATROL

Maysville Council May Equip Her Cops With Up-to-Date Police Wagon.

The Maysville City Council is about to take action to install a police patrol system, using one of the latest style auto patrol wagon.

Soon the public may be greeted with the clang of the "Black Maria" as it whirls along the streets delivering a load of "drunk-and-disorderlies" to the bawls.

We are getting there by leaps and bounds.

SUED FOR $10,000

Mayor J. Wesley Lee Made Defendant Because H. T. Day Was Killed By Fall Down Elevator Shaft in His Clothing Store.

Just one year ago yesterday, Mr. H. T. Day, a prominent farmer and dairyman, residing near Maysville, while in Mayor Lee's clothing store in this city, accidentally fell down the elevator shaft and was almost instantly killed.

Saturday Charles North as administrator of Day's estate filed suit against Mr. Lee for $10,000 damages alleging that his death was due to carelessness on the part of Mayor Lee, or his employees, the first story elevator door being open. Mr. Day entered the store from the rear and fell to the basement 8 feet to his death.

The suit is a surprise, as the premises are Mayor Lee's and are not a public building in the sense that it is subordinated to other parties.

If Mayor Lee is held liable it means that a stranger may come into any store or private home and meet death or accident and the owner shall pay damages.

This is not good law nor even-handed justice.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

MRS CELIA L. WOOD CRITICALLY ILL.

Mrs. Celia L. Wood, aged 84 years, is critically ill with pneumonia at her home in East Fourth street.

She has been unconscious for several days and Saturday her condition was so low that it was thought the end was near. However, yesterday she rallied, but remains unconscious, and owing to her advanced years, there is little chance for her recovery.

Besides her son Pickett Wood, who resides with her, her oldest son, Attorney Charles Wood, of Middlesboro, Ky., is at her bedside.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Herbert Howland entertained the "500" club very charmingly Saturday afternoon. The house was darkened and softly lit with green candles while yellow and white narcissus and potted flowers and ferns made spring-time for the guests. A very delicious luncheon was enjoyed. Mrs. Geisel won the club prize, Mrs. John Hall the guest prize, and Mrs. Darlington Fee the general prize. About thirty ladies enjoyed Mrs. Howland's hospitality.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

The Biggest and Best Clothing and Shoe Store in Maysville.

UNTIL we advertised our Price Reduction Sale—and, by the way, our reputation stands solid that we never have changed numerals on our price tickets prior to our semi-annual stock-reducing and money-getting sale—we knew not how many people had not yet bought their Overcoats. You surely have waited for this sale. At no time during this winter have we sold as many overcoats in the same given time as we have since our "ad." appeared in the papers. As winter has just set in, the more advantageous to you is this timely sale.

The One-Fourth Off on Suits should be quite alluring if you have half an apology to buy one

Our Semi-Annual Suit Sale

NOW IN PROGRESS

The enthusiastic response to this sale proves there are no inducements like style and quality allied to low price. This sale is just under way but long before it is over people will realize it is one of the most momentous trade movement in value-giving that has occurred for a long time. It is scarcely necessary to say the reductions are genuine and accurately stated.

Money never commanded so much value. Do not wait until the assortment is depleted. Come early and get the benefit of the widest possible choice.

The stock is divided into three groups, priced as follows:

$22.50 FOR SUITS UP TO $39.

$15 FOR SUITS UP TO $25.

$12.50 FOR SUITS UP TO $22.50.

At this great reduction it will be impossible to sell Suits on the usual six months credit. Sales of reduced goods must be cash transactions.
